

NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION CREST Center for Geospatial and Environmental Informatics, Modeling and Simulation Doctoral Fellowship Information

The goal of CREST-GEIMS is to improve Coastal Resiliency through research projects focused on Geospatial Informatics, Environmental Informatics, and Community Resilience and Public Health.

Eligibility

- Current or prospective Graduate students in TAMU-CC Computer Science - Geospatial PhD program or Coastal and Marine System Science PhD Program
- U.S. Citizen
- URM Ethnicity (African Americans, Hispanics, Native Pacific Islanders, American Indians, and Native Alaskans)

Benefits

- CREST-GEIMS Doctoral Fellowship
 - Stipend with BS $1800/month
 - Stipend with MS $2200/month
 - Stipend after advancing to PhD candidacy $2400/month
- Full Tuition and fees coverage
- Summer research internship (off campus/collaborator site)
- Conferences and Professional meetings travel support

For more information, please email: Celina.Garcia@tamucc.edu

visit: <https://crest.tamucc.edu>

or scan:

NSF CREST
CENTER FOR GEOSPATIAL AND
ENVIRONMENTAL INFORMATICS,
MODELING AND SIMULATION

