ABSTRACT

Centered text & all CAPS;
(17) text starts 2 double spaced below title

(18) Text is not indented

The Abstract should reflect the entire document and summarize the research and findings in your thesis. If your thesis includes one or more manuscripts, each manuscript may include a short abstract that relates to the work in the manuscript. Note that the abstract text is not indented. It is generally one paragraph; however, if additional paragraphs are needed, indentation of subsequent paragraphs should be consistent with style(s) utilized by your discipline and determined in consultation with your chair. Ideally, the abstract will be brief and information dense.

The text starts two double spaces below the title ABSTRACT and is double-spaced. There must be no additional space before or after titles and headings. Use the same margin settings and fonts as used in the narrative text. Your abstract must not include formal citations, images, or complex equations. It is up to you, based on guidelines of your discipline and related style guides and in consultation with your chair, to design the contents of the abstract.

Note: For the entire submission – where there are differences in format and layout between the specifications of the University template/guidelines and the style guide utilized by the discipline, the template/guidelines of the University overrule the discipline's style.

For double spacing in Word: For your entire document, go the paragraph tab on the ribbon, select double space, and ensure that spacing is set to 0 (not blank or automatic) for both "before" and "after." Otherwise, the spacing of your document will be off in specific areas in the front matter and throughout the document. This is a common issue that triggers return for corrections upon submission in documents submitted in both Word and Latex. CGS cannot amend the Latex template; please consult your chair.

Chapter Heading

CHAPTER I

Centered text & all CAPS; text starts 1 double spaced below title

TITLE OF CHAPTER

Text Indented → Content begins here. If you are using the chapter method, the word Chapter followed by a Roman numeral should be centered, all caps, with the title of the chapter, also centered and in all caps, below it. The heading, along with all content, must be double spaced with no additional space before or after headings.

Chapter Method Subheading → Chapter Major Heading

Throughout the text of your paper, ensure you are using the style guide preferred in your discipline or as indicated by your thesis chair. Be consistent with the use of the preferred style guide within the body of the thesis and for all tables, charts, references, etc., except where those conflict with TAMU-CC style guidelines. The heading for this paragraph aligns with Chapter Major Heading in the Chapter Format Table of Contents.

Subheading → Subheadings

Styles of preferred headings vary across disciplines and style guides. Appropriate use of subheadings is important in the written presentation of your work. Consistency matters. The heading for this paragraph aligns with Subheadings in the Chapter Format Table of Contents.

The style of Chapter Major Heading and Subheading (centered, then flush left, both bold) is not required unless it is consistent with your style guide; however, the relationship to the Table of Contents and level of heading should be noted and followed.
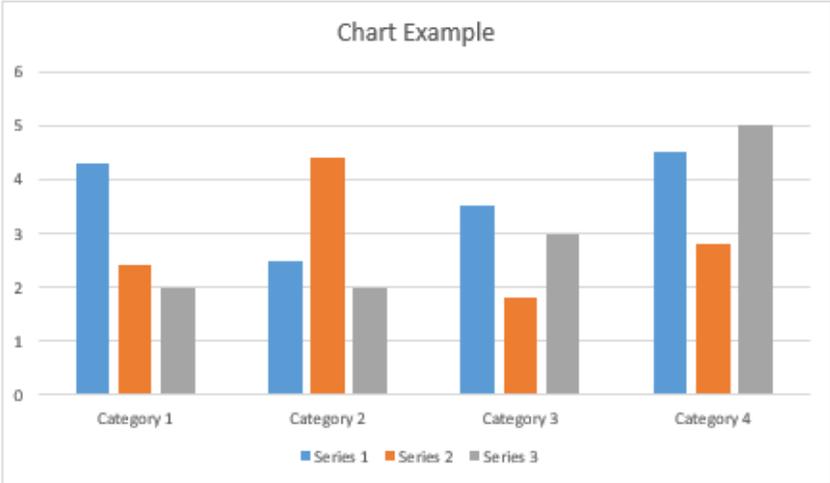

Chapter Major Heading 2 ← Major Heading 2

Please note that the Table of Contents may not update automatically. This is a result of nges to Microsoft Word. Remember to update page numbers.

REMINDER: Headings link back to the TOC, check for appropriate indentations that match your style guide.
