

TAMU-CC ISLAND WAVES

The Island Waves is a student publication by and for the students of Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi and should be published at least three times per long semester and maybe a Summer issue. TAMU-CC has no journalism department, but to show its support of the student newspaper it does pay for the paper's printing and other expenses. TAMU-CC has also budgeted for three part-time, minimum wage staff positions, is providing office space and some computer equipment to aid in the production of the newspaper.

Articles and opinions in this paper do not necessarily reflect those of the administrations of TAMU-CC or The Texas A&M University System. Any student or employee can join the volunteer staff or submit material for publication consideration. Articles, photos, art, creative writings or other submissions are subject to student editing and we reserve the right to refuse any submission, letter or advertisement. Letters to the editor over 400 words are subject to editing for space requirements. Commercial advertising space is available. Advertising must be prepaid; advertising contracts are required and are available from the address shown below.

Submissions can be dropped off or mailed to the Island Waves office and must include author's name and phone number. Please submit long articles on an IBM disk with paper copy or call 992-5744 to make other arrangements. Complaints, suggestions, submissions, advertising, circulation or other inquires can be made to the Island Waves — c/o the Office of Student Life, room 130 in the Student Center, TAMU-CC, 6300 Ocean Drive, 78412, or by calling 994-5744 during university business hours.
