

Let your voice be heard on the island

The Island Waves is seeking input from students, faculty and staff. Tell us about your club news, article ideas, activities, accomplishments, short creative writing or artwork.

Journalism experience is not necessary and volunteers can make submissions when they wish. Student involvement will best insure that the student newspaper meets expectations.