

React
the "ille
Cuban
in U.S. govern
nced it
can ves
d try at
women.
a one-
cht car
tugboat ana ra-
red in mericans
vessels
evolu-
at the
being
e Wil-
f the
esday
and
g in the

ttor-
ilors
ap-
ican
vor-
nfi-

ing
old
cid-
the
ay
er
s-

SIGNED, SEALED AND DELIVERED—Gov. Preston Smith (center) looks up, grinning, after signing a bill creating Texas A&I University at Corpus Christi yesterday in a ceremony at City Hall. Seated with him at the council table are (left to right) John Crutchfield, whose applauding hands are seen in the foreground, Speaker of the House Gus Mutscher, Sen. Ronald Bridges, Smith, Mayor Ronnie Sizemore, Rep. L. DeWitt Hale and J. C. Martin Jr. Standing are City Councilman Gabe Lozano, Rep. Delwin Jones of Lubbock, Rep. Joe Salem, Rep. Leroy Wieting, Rep. Menton Murray, Rep. Frances Farenthold, City Councilman Harold T. Branch and City Councilman Charles Bonniwell.

Packed Audience Watches Governor Sign College Bill