

student voice is heard through the student association's student senate. the senate meets weekly and is led by chairman pete du plessis. most campus organizations are recognized by the senate and carry a vote.

student work is carried out by many diverse committees; these groups are usually compiled of non-senate members who work with the senators. heading major committees this year are ray hetzel, academic; john mc vickers, student union; lupe serna, board of publications; charlene scott, elections.

lupe serna, board of publications head, checks type against copy for an upcoming edition of the seabreeze.

The image contains information about Student's Association and how Student's voice is heard through student senate which met weekly.
Source : The Student Yearbook of the University of Corpus Christi titled ' The Silver King' published in the year 1950.