Dear Professor/Dr. [Name]:

The [Department(s)] at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi [is/are] considering [Professor/Dr.] for promotion from the rank of [specify rank; with/without tenure] to the rank of [specify rank; specify with/without tenure]. Faculty at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi are tenured and/or promoted based on contributions in three areas: scholarly and/or creative contributions, teaching effectiveness, and service. Recognition of the quality of candidate's scholarly and/or creative work by their peers is a significant factor in the review process. We are contacting you because of your area of expertise and we would value your candid assessment of [Professor/Dr.]'s scholarly and/or creative activities. Your scholarly and professional judgment will play an important part in our evaluation of [Professor/Dr.] for tenure and/or promotion [specify if it is tenure and promotion, or promotion only]. Attached are the University's and the School of Arts, Media, & Communication's tenure and promotion criteria as well as the candidate's home departmental tenure and promotion criteria. You should assess the candidate according to the tenure and promotion criteria we have provided. Please do not evaluate the candidate as if they were being tenured and/or promoted at your own institution.

[ONLY FOR TENURED ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR SEEKING PROMOTION TO PROFESSOR]: We wish to note that at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi, the promotion from Associate to Full Professor is based on accomplishment and time in rank].

[For candidates with interdisciplinary appointments, include this paragraph: [Candidate's Name] is engaged in scholarship and/or creative activity that is interdisciplinary in nature. [He/She/They hold a joint appointment in the departments of [discipline] and [discipline].] We invite your consideration of the interdisciplinary nature of [Professor/Dr.]'s scholarly/creative activities in relation to others of comparable experience in their field.]

We would appreciate your comments on the following issues in a letter of no more than 2 single-spaced pages in length:

1. How well and in what capacity do you know [Professor/Dr.] and/or their work?
2. Please review the appropriate disciplinary or departmental, as well as school and university criteria for scholarly and/or creative activity expectations for faculty applying for promotion and/or tenure. Based on these criteria, provide an assessment of the candidate's contributions to scholarly and/or creative activity in the field. To facilitate your evaluation of the work in detail, enclosed are some of [Professor/Dr.]’s scholarly and/or creative activities as well as a current curriculum vitae.

3. Please describe the contributions and achievements of this faculty member’s scholarly and/or creative activities within their discipline.
4. Describe how the candidate’s continued scholarly and/or creative activities are likely to contribute to the field.

[The following paragraph must be included verbatim in ALL letters soliciting an evaluation of the candidate.]

Under the School of Arts, Media, & Communication at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi policy, your letter and CV will become part of the official promotion packet for [Professor/Dr.]. They will be accessible in unedited form to all internal reviewers as well as the candidate.

Due to the timeline for tenure and promotion review, we kindly require your response by [].

We sincerely appreciate the time and effort such evaluation letters take, and we thank you in advance for your important contribution to our process at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi. If you need further information, please contact [Contact Name] at [Phone/Email].

Sincerely,
